

Angelina _Table lamp

Angelina is a battery-powered, portable, and rechargeable table lamp, perfect for lighting up moments of reading, studying, or working. The adjustable head allows you to direct the light where it's needed, making it ideal as a reading lamp for desks or bedside tables. A touch control is located on the underside of the head, allowing you to turn the lamp on and off, adjust brightness, and select the desired color temperature. The lamp is intended for indoor use only. An electronic control system monitors and displays the remaining battery life, helping optimize charging. Supplied with contact charging base; USB charger not included.
